The Discipleship Journal's* Bible Reading Plan

This plan offers special features that will aid you in your journey through the Bible.

- By reading from four separate places in the Scripture every day, you should be able to better grasp the unity of the Scriptures, as well as enjoy the variety of seeing four different viewpoints.
- You can begin at any point of the year.
- To prevent the frustration of falling behind, which most of us tend to do when following a Bible reading plan, each month of this plan gives you only twenty-five readings. Since you'll have several "free days" each month, you could set aside Sundays to either not read at all or to catch up on any readings you may have missed in the past week.
- If reading through the entire Bible in one year looms as too large a task, you can alter the plan to meet your needs. For example, you could read the New Testament texts this year and the Old Testament next year, or pick two categories columns this year and do the others next.

In the year ahead, ask God each day to speak directly to you from the Scripture portions you read. Be expectant. Let your continual exposure to God's Word reshape your attitudes and behavior as you gain a better understanding of every part of His written testimony to us. You are encouraged to write down some thoughts in a blank notebook about the reading for the day, what is called the process of "journaling". Some have used the "S.O.A.P." method of journaling a daily Bible reading:

Scripture: Write down the portion of scripture you will journal on. This is usually a short section out of all that you have read that you have underlined or marked as you were reading.

Observations: Write down your observations on the passage. What is it about this passage that made it stick out for you today?

Apply: Write down how you will apply this passage to your life today. What is god calling you to do with this Scripture?

Pray: Write down a prayer to God about your experience today. Remember to pray that God will enable you to do what you have been called to do in your study of the Scripture today.
