It's that time again! The Holidays are fast approaching, but don't panic - we can help! Don't get stuck in the kitchen during the holidays, spend your time enjoying your family and friends. How you ask??

The Farmville United Methodist Women have the answer! Our annual Holiday Helpers will be Saturday, November 16th in the Church Fellowship Hall (located at 4588 West Church Street) from 9:00 am until 1:00 pm.

Coffee and a variety of homemade holiday food items will be available. There will be everything from homemade cookies, cakes and pies to entrée casseroles, vegetable casseroles as well as some surprises. These wonderful delicacies will be available for a reasonable price thus enabling us to support many worthwhile local missions.

The United Methodist Women are asking all members of the church to donate items for the "Holiday Helpers" fundraiser. The items need to be ready to cook or already cooked or frozen and prepared to transport after being purchased. Please include instructions for cooking. A list of the ingredients is helpful for special diets.

There will also be vendors sharing their arts and crafts or specialty items. Those already committed as vendors are Margaret Wells-pottery, Lisa Smith-seasonal wreaths, Newton Smith-sporting art, Julie Warren-gourds, Dianne Morris-scarves, and Jay Annis, book author. Other vendors are being contacted to join these plus Nan Walston and Laura Powell have agreed to share their wares.

Mark your calendar to stop by for our Holiday Helpers! Make the holidays easy this year and let us help you as we reach out to others.
